LOCAL MEN ESCAPE DEATH WHEN RACE CAR IS HURLED THROUGH FENCE

Eddie Winfield and Sam Durand In Crash While Leading Contest In North

After having driven a masterful race against a field of more experienced drivers and larger machines, the crowd's favorite pilot swung his sturdy little automobile into the final turn of the track and was in plain view of the checkered flag, which meant several hundred dollars in the winner's pocket, the thousands of frantically excited fans and fanettes suddenly hushed their enthusiastic cheers as they heard the sharp crackling sound of splitting timbers and ripping metal—their idol's car had unexpectedly swerved from the course and had crashed through the fence, apparently fatally injuring the driver.

No, this isn't a paragraph taken from a movie scenario or a dime novel, but a description of the hard luck experience of Eddie Winfield, local speed demon, at last Saturday's big race at the Kings County fair at Hanford. The story of the "heart-rending" defeat was told by Sam Durand, Winfield's business partner and mechanician, at their garage on East Broadway yesterday, just after their return from the northern city.

According to Durand, Eddie had been setting the pace for the five

HOLD CONFERENCE ON CITY PROBLEMS

Financing of Water Service Is Discussed at Gathering of City Officials

For more than three hours city officials last night discussed municipal problems, especially the financing of the municipal water department, with the result that it was decided to hold conferences with various improvements association in different sections of Glendale to the end that a positive policy might be decided upon for the benefit and betterment of the community as a whole. Present at the conference were:

Mayor Spencer Robinson, Councilman A. H. Lapham, S. A. Davis, C. E. Kimlin, City Manager William Reeves, Peter Diederich, superintendent of plant and production, H. A. Harrison, city controller, City Attorney Hartley Shaw, and Bert P. Woodard, who takes office as city attorney on October 1.

Facts and figures relative to the water department were provided at length by Superintendent Diederich. He also used a large map, drawn in colors, to make clear his statements.

More facts and figures were submitted by Controller Harrison and numerous questions were asked by the councilmen. It was made plain that the financing of the water department is a grave problem, especially in view of the fact that a considerable amount of service pipe will have to be replaced and, too, a number of water bonds will have to be retired within the next few years.

Conferences Proposed

It was at the suggestion of Councilman Kimlin that the council decided to take its problems to the people and hold conferences with various improvement organizations so that a complete understanding might be reached as to the policy to be taken by the city officials.

Improvement of streets was also discussed at last night's conference and a communication from C. J. Hill, city engineer, was read, in which he gave figures relative to the various thoroughfares in need of repairs and of those requiring new paving.

To properly care for the street work, it is probable that a bond issue of about $50,000 to provide a revolving fund will be submitted to the voters of the city. This fund, it was pointed out last night, will enable the city to make repairs and do other necessary street work, the fund to be replenished as the interested property owners make the payments on the improvements.

The definite policy to be followed by the council relative to the water department may be submitted for further consideration at the meeting of the council Thursday night.

GOOD WORDS CLUB MEET

The meeting of the Good Words club, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, will take place at the home of Mrs. O. C. Stanley, 417 North Maryland avenue.

Schools Bring Host Rim of World 'Sold' Believe in Glendale Pays to Advertise

By Gil A. Cowan

GLENDALE schools are overcrowded. That is an established fact. But Superintendent Richardson D. White is making a better job of handling the greatly increased enrollment than similarly situated school systems in the east.

A correspondent in Sterling, Ill., writes that sixty-six tots are enrolled in one of the primary grades. Thirty-three attend in the morning, the balance go to school in the afternoons only. That is the way many eastern schools meet their problem of overcrowding because climatic conditions do not permit outdoor classes.

What wonderful advantages the children of California have here in the glorious sunshine—even if it is warm. Out under a spreading pepper tree the teacher can gather her flock of little ones or they can romp on a playground that is never covered with slush. No wonder the whole world seems to be moving westward.

That is the result of the commercial secretaries' week-end jaunt to Big Bear lake for their monthly meeting, according to James M. Rhoades, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, one of those who enjoyed the hospitality of the mountain resorts.

At San Bernardino the secretaries were met by Judge Rex B. Goodsell and R. H. Mack of San Bernardino who had the big stages of the California Motor Transit company in waiting. Soon the machines carrying the party were purring over the beautiful boulevard into the mountains and Pine Crest was the first resort reached.

There they found Dr. J. N. Baylis a royal host with four score of log cabins, country store, postoffice 'n everything. Pine Crest is 5000 feet above sea level—one of the high spots among Southern California attractions.

Camps on Little Bear and Big Bear lakes were visited during the late afternoon and evening and as moonlight spread over the enchanting scene the good motor launch, Sierra, carried the secretaries and their wives across the eight mile expanse of water to Big Bear lodge, where they were the guests for the night.

Morning after the motor busses brought the booster crew down the Redlands side of the "Rim of the World" and luncheon was had at Forest Home, one of the nicest retreats ever seen by the secretaries, they agreed. And as they left the stages at San Bernardino, it was the unanimous opinion that residents as well as tourists should know first hand this Switzerland of America.

A former resident of Glendale returned after three years' absence and such a surprise was his last night as he walked around the business section. He had read about the building activities through the columns of The Glendale Evening News and appreciated the change which had taken place, but what struck him hard—for he was a business man—is the number of motor cars and people to be found on streets of an evening.

Theatregoers are a host, window shoppers there are many and the hustle-up and hurry of the day hangs over until 10 or 11 o'clock. All of which makes business better and the "trade at home" spirit is more and more evidenced. Glendale people believe in Glendale or they wouldn't be here. Yes, the "home town" is coming into its own!

At a wayside station 'way up in the mountains in the Bear Lake country there is a man who sells Sierra Club beverages exclusively. Now these delightful drinks are a product of Glendale, and when Secretary Rhoades of the Chamber of Commerce found out this fact on the Rim of the World trip, he stood up on the hillside and said right out loud:

"Step right this way boys! The treat's mine. Sierra Club is synonymous to Glendale. Drink all you want."

And that merry crew of commercial secretaries took him at his word and nary a drop was left. The genial secretary smiled at the advertising Glendale got, but he came home "broke."

Still they say "it pays to advertise."

Telephone girls are accused of not reading the "home" news.

Really, there is little wonder about that. They hear it all, or should hear it all, in the course of a day.

Fred Deal will declare that they don't, which is true for the girls are not supposed to "listen in" on busy lines.

But if he wants to "square himself," Mr. Deal ought to provide The Glendale Evening News for the recreation room at the telephone office.

REV. JAMES O'NEILL HONOR GUEST AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Huge Cake, Appropriate Words and Several Gifts for Pastor Local Catholic Church

Rev. James S. O'Neill, pastor of the Holy Family Catholic church of this city, was the guest of honor at a silver tea and birthday party given yesterday afternoon at Casa Verdugo restaurant by the women of the fancy work booth of the bazaar to be held October 6, 7 and 8, and which was held under the direction of Mrs. George Blanchet.

As yesterday was Rev. O'Neill's birthday anniversary, the women decided to present him with a large four-tier birthday cake. The top tier was decorated with a gold candle, the second tier with small flags, one for each year of his age, the third tier with corn flowers and the fourth tier with sweet peas. The following explanation of the significance of these decorations was given when the cake was presented to him:

"The burning candle represents Rev. O'Neill's radiant love and gratefulness towards his people. The small flags act as a sweet reminder of the numerour years of loyalty he has served as a true American citizen. The mass of flowers represent his people sending forth a message of persistent and untiring labor in completing the task of raising funds for the new church."

After a few appropriate words of thanks and then cutting the cake, Rev. O'Neill was presented with a purse of $35.

Fuel Is Quite Necessary

Rev. O'Neill read a very clever note which he had received from Harry Girard early in the morning, together with a coupon book for $20 worth of gasoline, the note being as follows:

"Having supplied the spiritual fuel for our motors in the race for eternal life, for fourteen years, isn't it about time we should realize that fuel in general, and gasoline in particular, is quite necessary, especially to 'Lizzie' when the good Father O'Neill wants his breakfast?"

Then followed a very delightful musical program, which included piano selections by Dorothy Voge, vocal selections by Viola Yorba, Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Frank Patch and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard.

Over $75 was collected at the silver tea yestrday.

1 DEAD, 1 MISSING IN SUB'S SINKING

Authentic Casualty List Is Given Out on Tragedy In Los Angeles Harbor

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—One drowned, one missing, believed to be drowned. This is the authentic casualty list given the United Press today by Rear Admiral Herman O. Stickney, commander of the Pacific fleet train, following the mysterious sinking last night of the U. S. submarine R-6 at San Pedro. The official list:

Drowned—R. Dreffen, seaman.

Missing—Vincent Spaulsberg, electrician.

The body of Dreffen was shot out of the diving boat's conning tower by the inrushing water which filled and sunk the R-6. He could not swim, and in his panic fought off would-be rescuers, according to eye-witnesses. He went down in the suction which followed the last dive of the R-6, in the wierd circle of brilliant light thrown by searchlights of surrounding battleships.

If Spaulsberg succeeded in "dogging down" the watertight doors of the compartment in which he was caught when the submarine sank without warning, he can live for forty-eight hours in the supply of air in the compartment, Admiral Stickney said.

MRS. T. J. MORGAN RETURNS

Mrs. T. J. Morgan of 1142 Campbell street has returned from a vacation of a month at Tacoma and Seattle, Wash., at both of which places she was widely entertained and had a splendid time. She also visited Mt. Ranier and Paradise Inn.

VISITOR FROM OKLAHOMA

Mrs. William Stables of Sentinel, Okla., is making an extended visit in Glendale as the guest of her niece, Mrs. H. G. Hoedinghaus, of 1211 North Brand boulevard.

MORE THAN 100 ARE PRESENT AT FIRST NIGHT SCHOOL

Program of Studies Very Well Worked Out and Classes Start Off Immediately

Glendale's first session of public night school was held at the high school last night with more than 100 residents of this city determined to take advantage of the opportunity for further culture and personal development.

Due to carefully worked out plans previously made, there was no hitch in the program and the classes began and ended on schedule with no confusion whatever. It would be much more thrilling to say that dazed adults who had escaped the clutches of their last school marm years and years ago, wandered aimlessly about the corridors like little tots looking for the kindergarten.

Fortunately, nothing of the kind occurred. The adults found their their class rooms without any trouble because the interiors glowed in the darkness. Most of them carried watches and no excuses from home were brought for tardiness. In fact, the first session of the night school was a most thoroughly businesslike affair.

Tonight is to be much more important, according to Principal A. L. Ferguson, who called attention to the fact that the majority of classes are held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

"Pupils" Bring Others

Last night the sixteen who had registered for business English brought seventeen more with them, making a total attendance of thirty-three. About twenty-two reported for business arithmetic. Both of these classes are under Paul Webb, of the high school faculty. The mechanical drawing class, under Arthur Oliver and George Lockwood, consisted of twenty, while thirty-five young men reported to Coach Norma C. Hayhurst for the first gymnasium

Forty-five High School Teachers, Out for Get Acquainted Picnic, Lay Aside Dignity for Swim In Cool Waters, But Tank's Dry!

"While the cat's away, the mice may play!"

The get-acquainted picnic of the high school faculty yesterday afternoon at Brookside, Pasadena, was not called on account of Principal Geo. U. Moyse's absence from the city, nor did he leave Glendale in order to escape the pangs of home-made sandwiches and cake—but anyhow, he did miss an enjoyable outing.

About forty-five dignifed teachers, question mark, packed their books and homework away for the night and met upon the high school campus immediately after the last class yesterday. Soon they were all canned in tins—pardon, packed in Fords and automobiles and joyfully bound eastward.

A waterless swim was one of the features of the affair. Arriving in Pasadena, panting from warmth and tenaciously holding the thought of a pleasant swim, the picnickers were disappointed to find the outdoor swimming tank bone dry. They were unable to ascertain whether the management intends to convert it into a hothouse or whether feverish residents of the Crown City had drunk all of the acqua pura. Anyhow, no drownings were reported.

The lunch? Oh yes, there was a lunch to be sure! But it went so rapidly that no one had much of a chance to find out just what was on the bill-of-fare. It had been packed under the direction of Miss Ellen J. Hanson at the school cafeteria, at the suggestion of Miss Mona Gardner, of the entertainment committee and under the instigation of Morgan N. Smith, president of the teacher's club.

The weather was the principal topic of discussion. It would have been described in Latin, Greek, French, and minus quantities—if lexicons had not been left behind.

Today's World News In Brief

(By United Press to Glendale Evening News)

GERMAN MARK DROPS TO LOWEST POINT ON EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The German mark went to the lowest point it has ever touched at the opening of the market today when preliminary quotations were .0081, off .0006½.

INDUSTRIALS HEAVY IN EARLY TRADING ON MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A heaviness of industrials and oils characterized the early trading on the stock market today. Mexican Petroleum opened off ⅝ at 99⅛ and then dipped to 98¼. Baldwin made a new low on the decline at 86¼, off ⅜. Steel common also lost ⅜ at 79⅛. The rails acted somewhat better than the rest of the list. New Haven, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific were all fractionally higher.

TWO AMERICANS ARE KILLED IN MEXICO NEAR DOLORES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Two Americans were killed in Mexico near Dolores, Saturday night, according to advices to the state department today. The Americans, P. C. Smith, of Benita, Okla., and E. B. Kilsingbury of Los Angeles, were slain by bandits. Learning of the slaying, Consul Ott, at Dolores, conferred with the governor of Chihuahua, who at once ordered the Mexican rurale police to start in pursuit of the bandits. The two men were employed by the Dolores Mining company.

HARD TO FIND JURY TO TRY 'FEMALE BLUEBEARD'

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Sept. 27.—The neighborliness of residents of Twin Falls and vicinity threatened today to hold up selection of a jury to try Mrs. Lyda Southard, alleged "female bluebeard," on a charge of murder. Prospective jurors had so thoroughly discussed the case among themselves and with their neighbors, or were so well acquainted with Mrs. Southard and her father, "Billy" Trueblood, prominent rancher, that they were automatically barred from serving. When the second day of the trial opened only one juror had been passed for cause and eleven others were holding their seats in the jury box tentatively. There had been no peremptory challenges and each side still had ten.

NUMBER OF UNEMPLOYED GREATLY REDUCED, REPORT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Unemployed throughout the country now number fewer than 3,500,000 a nation-wide survey made for the unemployment conference by the department of commerce showed today. This total is approximately forty per cent less than the recent estimate of the department of labor which stated that men out of work totalled 5,570,000. Figures collected by Secretary of Commerce Hoover's department, it was learned, are based on reports from mayors of all cities through the country with a population of ten thousand or more. The reduced number of jobless, as found by this method, caused a distinct tone of optimism among delegates to the unemployment conference, when work was resumed.

IRISH PEACE CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD IN LONDON

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Barring possible dissension by certain cabinet ministers, a peace conference between Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries and the British cabinet committee will be held in London next week; it was learned today. The note from Lloyd George inviting De Valera to send a deputation was to be forwarded tomorrow and made public Thursday, according to present plans. The views of nearly all the various British ministers who have been considering the rough draft of Lloyd George's proposed reply had been received today, according to a report from Gairloch. There was no reason, it was said, to anticipate that any serious opposition to the line the premier had taken had arisen.

AL SEMNACHER THREATENS TO SUE ARBUCKLE LAWYER

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Battles within battles threatened to develop today from the preliminary hearing of Roscoe Arbuckle, charged with the murder of Virginia Rappe, the "best dressed girl in the movies." Al Semnacher, whom Arbuckle's defense yesterday charged with attempting to extort money from Arbuckle, using Virginia Rappe's torn clothing as a weapon, today announced he had wired Attorney Guy Hays in Los Angeles to start suit against Frank Dominguez, chief of the Arbuckle defense, for defamation of character. This action followed a demand by Semnacher that the grand jury investigate Dominguez' charges and either indict or exonerate him. Semnacher, with a representative of the district attorney's office, appeared late yesterday before the grand jury and made the demand. Arbuckle's attorneys were invited to attend the grand jury session and show what evidence of attempted extortion they could furnish against Semnacher, but they did not appear. It was believed that they remained away preferring not to show at this time, any cards which they might hold.

SIX DIRECTORS FOR C. OF C. WILL BE CHOSEN BY VOTE TUESDAY, NOV. 20

Election Committee Is Named at Meeting; Total of 919 Members Now on Rolls

Appointment of an election committee was the principal business transacted by the Chamber of Commerce directors at their meeting this afternoon after a luncheon at the Crown Cafe.

The annual election of six directors will be held the third Tuesday in November following a primary vote.

Six of the present members of the board who will remain are C. C. Cooper, George Bentley, Jesse E. Smith, V. M. Hollister, R. D. White and J. G. Huntley or C. D. Lusby. The latter two will have to draw lots, according to Secretary James M. Rhoades as they tied in the first election.

Charles B. Guthrie appeared before the directors and urged that steps be taken to curb the distribution of oil literature throughout the city. He also appealed for support for the opening of Patterson avenue.

Mrs. E. J. Morgan and Mrs. W. R. Blair, representing the Southern Glendale Improvement Association, appealed to the directors for aid in securing a fireproof school where the Cerritos school is now located, and also asked aid in obtaining other school improvements for that section of the city.

An interesting report was read by the secretary which showed that the present membership drive has resulted in 221 being enrolled, bringing the total to 919 active and reserve members. The goal of 1000 active members should be attained easily, the officials believe.

List of New Members

Thirty-one applications for membership presented today showed that both Assistant Secretary E. F. Sanders and S. L. Roland of the South-

SMALL CHANCE FOR ROAD'S EXTENSION

Montrose Railway Can't See Way Clear Financially to Enter Into Tujunga

Hope for the extension of the Glendale & Montrose railroad line from LaCrescenta to Tujunga hangs by a slender thread as the result of a conference here yesterday afternoon between the local Chamber of Commerce railroad committee and R. M. Wolitz, general manager of the interurban concern. P. L. Hatch, superintendent of the lines, and James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber, also attended the meeting.

Mr. Wolitz informed the committee that 3800 miles of electric railroad trackages has been junked in the last year and that sixty-six companies in the United States are now in the hands of receivers. Only three have shown a profit during the year and among the large number run at a loss the Pacific Electric was mentioned.

Deficit Is Shown

The Glendale & Montrose company has shown a deficit for three years, according to general manager, and in view of the fact that a stage line parallels the proposed line between La Crescenta and Tujunga, his company does not see its way clear to do anything.

However, if a proposition is presented it will be given consideration, he added. In other words, he leaves open the recourse of subsidy on the part of those interested, if the extension is to be built in the immediate future.

It was Mr. Wolitz's opinion that street cars will never run again in Des Moines, Ia., where public opinion and legislation drove the operating company into bankruptcy. Similar conditions throughout the United States will drive two-thirds of the electric lines out of business within a year, he concluded.

MRS. MARY FOWLER DEAD

The many friends in Glendale of Mrs. Mary Fowler of San Jacinto, who was the aunt of C. H. Thompson of 348 West Milford street, will be grieved to learn of her death at that city Sunday at the age of 84 years. For about fifty years Mrs. Fowler has been associated with the Indians. The government sent Mrs. Fowler here from Pennsylvania in 1880 to open up an industrial school for the Soboba Indians, which proved such a success that many similar schools have since been established.

The regular meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society of St. Mark's church will be held this evening in the guild hall.

Mrs. George Cheney of San Bernardino is the house guest of Mrs. R. W. Meeker of 1320 East Colorado street.

The regular meeting of the Intermediate Parent-Teacher association will be held at the school building tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Oren L. Howard of 364 West Doran street was hostess at a luncheon last Thursday for the R. T. W. class of the Baptist church.

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Marlenee of 301 South Central avenue have as their house guest Mrs. Marlenee's mother, Mrs. Milton Armstrong of Barstow.

Mrs. H. E. Hutchinson of Bell, California, was a visitor Saturday at the home of her niece, Mrs. John W. Sharpe, of 705 South Glendale avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hamann of 439 West Dryden street are planning to leave next Sunday for San Francisco, where they will visit Mr. Hamann's grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Smith and family of 205 West Chestnut street motored to Long Beach on Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a cool evening on the strand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor of Alhambra and their little granddaughter, Ruth Brackett of Ventura, were calling upon friends in Glendale on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Dunlop of 203 West Burchett street and Mr. and Mrs. Dean S. Phillips were members of a week-end party in the Arroyo Seco over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jewett of Bakersfield, who have been the guests for the past week of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Flanders of 4117 Sequoia street, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson D. White are moving Wednesday from 1220 South Brand boulevard and will make their home for a time with Mrs. C. D. Cady at 624 South Central avenue.

Miss Gertrude Grider, the last addition to the teachers' staff at the Intermediate school, has moved from Los Angeles to Glendale and is pleasantly located in the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Warner of 429 North Kenwood street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn of 446 West Colorado street and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Melvin of 670 North Orange street were members of a house party given over the week-end by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dunn of Pasadena at their cabin in the Arroyo Seco.

"We have had splendid attendance this term," remarked Miss Mary L. Cornwell, principal of the Acacia school, yesterday afternoon. "Of course, we only have the two rooms here and the children are all small. They don't know the meaning of the word 'hookey.'"

J. E. Rockhold and daughter Leone of 330 Burchett street returned Sunday night from a hunting trip in the mountains near Calabasas. They report that although they were within one and one-half miles of the ocean and quite high in the mountains, they found the heat intense. One member of the party secured a deer on Thursday, so they enjoyed venison for several days of the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Flanders of 4117 Sequoia street entertained with a dinner party last night in honor of Mrs. Flanders' birthday anniversary. The decorations were in pink and white, and the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing, cards and music. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Flanders of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. C. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. M. McNutt, all of Burbank.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kull, 311 West Colorado, and Mr. and Mrs. David Bisno, '10 North Brand, spent a very enjoyable outing Saturday and Sunday visiting Chatsworth lake, Little Tujunga canyon, Topango, and the beaches. The usual "good time was enjoyed by all," Mr. Bisno reporting it as a "hunting, fishing and camping trip, but we ate all the fish and couldn't bring back proof of how many we landed."

Mrs. Frank England of 120 Burchett street entertained a group of neighbors and friends Monday afternoon with an informal tea. With a little fancy work, a little music and pleasant conversation, they forgot the heat as the moments flew swiftly by. The invited guests were Mrs. Oliver Clark, Mrs. Frank Card, Mrs. Chas. Meadows, Mrs. Chas. Farber, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. Frank Goodwin, Mrs. John T. Crampton, Mrs. J. E. Rockhold.

The Misses Dorothy and Kathleen Woods, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Woods of 122 Milford street, and who received several floral tributes while dancing with the Morgan Dancers in the San Francisco Orpheum theatre, are repeating their success on the Los Angeles Orpheum stage. Last night, as they entered their dressing room back stage, a bouquet of huge yellow chrysanthemums awaited them. Later in the evening a basket of roses, a creation standing about four feet high, was sent in to them by Mr. and Mrs. John Treanor of Los Angeles.

Locals and Personals

Julius Balthasar has joined the police force and will report for assignment tomorrow night.

Mrs. D. Gervais of 335 Ivy street was taken ill this morning with a slight stroke of paralysis.

J. S. Templeton of 115 Broadway, San Diego, while spending a few days in Los Angeles, visited Glendale this forenoon.

Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Bashor and their two children of Los Angeles spent Sunday in Glendale visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Krug of Orange were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pierce of 1311 East Harvard street.

A. C. Lowe of Los Angeles spent Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Cory at their home at 820 South Central avenue.

Mrs. J. A. Neel of 302 North Louise street underwent a major operation at a local hospital this morning and is getting along nicely.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Tobias of 210 East Palmer avenue leave tonight for their old home in Docyrus, Ohio, where they will visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. Jane Denison of 326 Mira Loma returned Sunday night from Battle Creek, Michigan, where she has been spending the last five months.

Harrison W. Frank and Fred R. Eldridge of the Local View company, 107 South Maryland avenue, are taking photographs of scenic sports in Griffith park this week.

Mrs. Schade of Burchett street entertained the following guests at an afternoon affair at her home recently, Mrs. Eugene Gilliland, Mrs. E. K. Harris, Jr., Mrs. McClintock and Mrs. C. B. Guittard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pierce of 1311 East Harvard street have as their guests Mrs. Pierce's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of Minnesota, who will remain here for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Sturges of 310 North Cedar street are rejoicing over the arrival of a new granddaughter, which was born Saturday evening, September 24, 1921, to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sturges of Loma Linda.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn of 446 West Colorado street have returned from a two weeks' automobile trip from San Diego to San Francisco and Kentfield, at which latter place they visited Mrs. Dunn's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. McDougall and son Alex of 128 West Elk avenue, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Lewis and sons, James and Frank, motored to San Fernando to attend the fair last Saturday afternoon, and enjoyed a picnic supper on the way home.

T. L. Rowe of East San Diego made a brief business call in Glendale today, relative to real estate matters. Mr. Rowe is well impressed with the offerings of this city and is seriously contemplating a purchase of property and making his home here permanently.

Three babies arrived last night, Monday, September 27, 1921, at the Glendale Sanitarium. Mrs. A. J. Muhleman, 527 East Windsor road, is the mother of a girl; Mrs. John D. Cole, 122 West Arden street, is the parent of a boy, while Mrs. A. Carlson of Burbank, is the mother of a girl.

Yale Brothers, realtors, yesterday reported a typewriter stolen. It wasn't. Ira J. Herbert of the Glendale Patral and Fire Dispatch placed it in the I. D. Wheeler delicatessen for safety when he found the realty office door at 247 North Brand boulevard unlocked Sunday night. The typewriter was returned yesterday afternoon.

Proposed New Home of Tuesday Club to Be Under Discussion

Following a luncheon to be given Friday by Mrs. Mabel Rudy to the members of the executive board of the Tuesday Afternoon club, there will be a meeting at her home of the building committee to consider the question of financing and of making plans for the building of the new clubhouse, which is to be erected at the corner of Brand boulevard and Lexington Drive in the near future.

The building committee includes members of the executive board, past presidents and past chairmen of ways and means.

A new rust-proof process consists in boiling the articles to be treated in a solution of hydric-phosphate of iron. This produces a dark gray finish which is practically immune from rust attack. It does not in any way affect the strength or temper of the material treated.

Mountain View Tract Lots In Great Demand, Says W. H. Armstrong

Lots in the Mountain View tract out along the San Fernando road, are "going like hot cakes, reports W. H. Armstrong of 104 North Central avenue. Of the seventy lots, many have already been sold and all day yesterday Mr. Armstrong was kept busy answering inquiries either by phone or personal calls.

The tract is a particularly attractive one, lying between Fourth and Second streets, and Laurel and Elm. A new street, Acacia, joining Fourth and Second, has been opened up and the sidewalks and curbing are already in. Bonds are now up for paving that street and Fourth and Elm streets.

Two fine houses and a two-story business block are on the schedule for immediate building and work will start this week. Other purchasers are making immediate plans for improving their lots and arrangements are being made for setting out shade trees.

Plans Eight-Room House

Among the most prominent builders in the Mountain View tract is Assemblyman Robert W. Colburn of San Diego county, who is planning to construct an eight-room chalet house.

Mr. Armstrong is very enthused over the Mountain View tract, and had the following to say yesterday afternoon:

"I think this tract is one of the best bargains that I have put on the market, and the prompt response of many buyers indicates the people are appreciating this. The tract is very conveniently located and has many advantages. The Pacific Electric runs on one side and the San Fernando road on the other. The soil is very good and there are the advantages of water, gas, electricity, and reasonable building restrictions.

"One of the best features of this tract is that it is almost ideally situated for building, and this is being realized by the purchasers who intend to build as soon as possible on their lots. As soon as papers are executed building will start on two residence lots and a business block."

Miss Laura Chudley Guest of Honor on Birthday Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Chudley of 907 East Lomita avenue entertained a number of their friends and relatives on Saturday night in honor of the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Laura Chudley. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing, the happy guests enjoying themselves until a late hour.

At exactly 11 o'clock all of the lights in the house were suddenly turned out and in a few moments a single file procession, with Mr. Chudley in the lead, marched into the room. All were garbed in wierd and ghostlike costumes of black and white, and were carrying a huge white birthday cake, which in turn was supporting a group of burning candles. The exact number of candles could not be ascertained by the guests, as Miss Chudley cleverly blew out the lights before they could be counted.

Those present at the gay affair were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Strangman and Miss Gladys Golden of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Tampleman, Miss Dorothy Wilde and Kenneth Wilde of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kranz Entertains In Honor of Southern Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kranz of 122 Fairview avenue entertained at dinner Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kronengold and daughter, Miss Berenice Kronengold of New Orleans and also in celebration of the fourteenth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Barbara Kranz. Covers were laid for six. Floral decorations of chrysanthemums were used.

Later the following guests gathered together to enjoy the evening: Miss Berenice Kronengold, Miss Frances Wyman, Miss Dorothy Campbell, Doyle Kennedy and Thomas Kennedy, recently of Dallas, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Selig Cahn, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kronengold and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kranz.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kronengold and daughter, Miss Berenice Kronengold, who is a southern belle, have been spending the summer at Hermosa Beach, and will leave Wednesday for New Orleans after visiting in San Francisco, Colorado, Chicago and other points of interest.

DISCUSS YEAR'S PROGRAM

A short meeting of the Young People's branch of the W. C. T. U., was held last night at the home of Mrs. R. W. Mottern, 211 North Adams street, with the president, Aage Berg, in charge. The time of the meeting has been changed from 8 o'clock in the evening to 7:30 o'clock. The chief matter of business taken up last night was a discussion of plans for the year's work. At the next meeting, which will be held October 10 at the home of Mrs. Mottern, the study of a book on "Nicotine" will be begun.

O. E. Patterson, Son of One of Founders of City, Visits Here

O. E. Patterson, only son of the late B. F. Patterson, one of the founders of Glendale, who formerly resided at 110 South Belmont street, is in Glendale for a few days having dentistry work completed after three weeks at Randsburg in Kern county. He resigned his position as service foreman with the Southern California Gas company here September 1.

Mr. Patterson was interested in the pre-organization of the North Rand Silver Mining company and was appointed master mechanic by the general manager there. Three days before returning to Glendale the Middle Rand Silver Mining company was organized and with his general manager Mr. Patterson transferred his interests to that concern at a handsome salary.

Samples or ore from the new company's property were brought here by the former resident and he reports that Arizona and Nevada mining men are flocking to the district because of the new developments. He states that a strike was made in the Bisbee mine near Randsburg which assays 10,000 ounces of silver to the ton.

As a result of this boom cots are now worth a dollar a night and the cheapest meal is 50 cents. A bank is being organized and prosperity again reigns in the desert town which has seen the usual "ups and downs" of a mining center.

Mr. Patterson proposes to visit Glendale again during the holidays as he has three sisters living here and it is hoped by his many friends that more good news will be brought back by him.

Glen R. Dolberg to Open New Studio on W. Broadway Oct. 5

Glendale will have a new studio one week from today, if the plans of Glen R. Dolberg go well.

Mr. Dolberg is now very busy remodeling the interior of the room at 206 West Broadway and believes he will have the establishment ready for patronage by October 5.

The studio will be equipped to do portrait work of every description, with excellent facilities for doing oil coloring, enlarging, and finishing.

Mr. Dolberg has had many years' experience in studio work at Minneapolis, Minnesota, and recently came here from San Diego. In commening on his plans he said:

"By October 5 we hope to have the studio finished and will at that time, if plans go well, have one of the most completely equipped studios for portrait work. We shall make a specialty of fine portraiture work, and shall make every endeavor to please the patrons. We are installing a system of artificial lights so that we can take care of evening appointments."

JOHN R. YOUNGS SUMMONED

John R. Youngs passed away Monday, September 26, 1921, at 5 a. m., at the home of his son, P. R. Youngs of 316 North Concord street, at the age of 85 years. He had been a resident of Glendale for the past ten months and of California for about twenty years, and was a retired rancher. Mr. Youngs was born in New York state. He was a veteran of the civil war, having served with the Second Michigan infantry, and was wounded in the battle of Williamsburg, the first of the war. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Phebe L. Youngs, one daughter, Mrs. P. B. Becanan of Van Nuys, and one son, P. R. Youngs of 316 North Concord street.

Mr. Youngs was a master Mason since 1863 and this fraternity will conduct the funeral services, which will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Memorial Park with Pulliam & Kiefer in charge.

TWO LOCAL REALTY DEALS

Two real estate deals for one property owner was consummated recently by the firm of Rosenberger and Kellogg, 1424 South Glendale avenue. Alfred J. Bechtle, 312 East Lomita avenue, sold two houses at this address to Dr. F. B. Stores, 1419 Gardena avenue, who, it is reported, will hold it as income property. Mr. Bechtle has announced his intention of moving before another month is past.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beady of Los Angeles expect to make their home in Glendale soon. For this purpose they have bought a home at 125 Eulalia street. This also was owned by Mr. Bechtle. The two transactions represented an exchange of $13,400.

INSTALL NEW EQUIPMENT

The Fanset Dye Works, 110 East Broadway, conducted by Ray E. Goode and O. H. Belew, has found it again necessary to install new equipment in order to take care of its patronage. This morning another delivery car was added to the business. A car was added last week, and the store now has three which are kept busy. A new Hoffman press was also installed this morning, which makes three pressing machines.

DRESSMAKING SHOP OPEN

The Glendale Dry Goods company, 115 East Broadway, today opened a dressmaking shop in the rear of the store, the new establishment being under the supervision of Mrs. Maude E. Chamberlin and Miss Zelie Davenport.

C. H. Gooding Likes City, Buys Property and Will Stay Here

Despite the weather the past few days, which is declared by old residents as most unusual, C. H. Gooding of the Pacific Paint and Supply company, West Broadway and Orange, thinks Glendale is the best city in the state of California. Mr. Gooding came to California eighteen years ago and a third of that time has been spent in Glendale, where he says he hopes to spend the rest of his days.

"I came here six years ago," said Mr. Gooding, "and purchased property on Orange street. At that time there were few business houses and the property was considered far out, but so rapid has been the growth of business in the city that now my home is close in. I would not part with my holding for any price.

"Of all the places I have visited in California, Glendale beats them all to my notion. It is the whitest city in California and I hope to spend the rest of my life here."

Mr. Gooding is now making elaborate plans to enlarge his business at the corner of Orange and West Broadway. A portion of his holdings has been leased for some time, but Mr. Gooding is making plans to take over the rest of the store and move in his stock in order to take care of his trade.

This Pig Goes Wild on Broadway; Takes Bunch of Men to Catch Him

Hog tied on Broadway!

The pig in the poke wasn't half as funny as the one which fell from a trailer attached to a motorcar last night while crossing Broadway at Brand boulevard.

When the end gate broke, out dropped straw, piggy and all. The prize porker bumped its nose on the pavement, gave a disgusted grunt and started on the trail of something to eat.

After it had looked in a couple of restaurant doors, the farm hands accompanying the petted stock home to the Rupert L. Stewart ranch at Pomona found a rope and the greased pig race was on.

Bystanders howled in glee to see the fellows' efforts to lasso their elusive quarry. And when finally it was roped the tighter they tied it, the louder piggy squealed.

It took four men with a grunt and two with a grouch to toss the grunter back into the truck. However, they handled it gently for it had a blue ribbon won at the San Fernando Valley fair.

Paramount Production, 'A Wise Fool,' for Palace Grand Feature

In George Medford's latest Paramount production, "A Wise Fool," playing today and tomorrow at the Palace Grand, the public will see one of the strongest casts ever assembled for a photoplay.

As the erratic Jean Jacques Barbille, the hero of Sir Gilbert Parker's original novel, of which the picture is an adaptation, James Kirkwood has a most delightful and entertaining role. Alice Hollister, a delightful actress, has the leading woman's role. Ann Forrest, who played the principal feminine role in "The Faith Healer," is seen as Zoe Barbille. Alan Hale is excellent as Masson, and Fred Huntley, as Sebastain Dolores, a scoundrelly Spanish exile, provokes amusement by his rascality. Edward Southerland has the leading juvenile role and Truly Shattuck, a once famous comic opera star, plays Virginia Pouchette. The cast includes Harry Duffield.

Mack Sennett's rollicking comedy, 'Dabbling in Art," and the latest Kinograms complete the bill.

C. Thyman Enlarging Restaurant; Business Increasing, He States

Restaurant business has been so flourishing for C. Thyman, 708 East Broadway, that he has found it necessary to enlarge his establishment and now has a force of carpenters busy repairing the building at 712 East Broadway.

The improvement when completed will be very modern and will enable the proprietor to take care of a large patronage. Besides a forty-foot counter along one side, there will be a number of tables in the center and seven booths on the opposite side.

The plan of interior decorations will be in keeping throughout as Mr. Thyman intends to have the finishing touches done by an experienced decorator. French windows and fresco work will add to the design. Attractive rest rooms will also be provided.

Work is being rushed as fast as possible as it is planned to have the restaurant ready for business within the next two weeks. The carpenter work is being done by F. P. Finnell, 119 North Glendale avenue.

Annual Family Picnic by Elks on October 9

At the regular meeting of Glendale lodge of Elks No. 1289, which was held last night, the three important matters of business which were taken up were balloting on candidates, arrangements for picnic and also for the ninth anniversary meeting of the lodge. There were thirteen applicants to membership who were elected.

Announcement was made of the annual family picnic, which will take place Sunday, October 9, at the A. D. Works ranch. This is located between Newhall and Saugus. The ranch is reached by turning off the main highway about two miles beyond Newhall and then driving about two miles on that road. Arrangements, which are in charge of John Roman, are being made for a real good old-fashioned time.

The meeting night of October 17 has been selected as being the nearest to the anniversary date, October 14, and a special program is being planned in celebration of the ninth anniversary of the Glendale lodge.

Dr. Marlenee to Give All of Time to His Glendale Business

In order that he may devote all of his time to his fast increasing business in Glendale, Dr. C. L. Marlenee, optometrist, has sold his branch office in San Bernardino, a business he has directed for many years most successfully.

"My office in Glendale needs all of my time, hence the sale of my San Bernardino branch," said Dr. Marlenee this morning. "I have decided to give all of my time to the Glendale business and, I am sure, this decision will mean an even greater increase for the local office."

Dr. Marlenee's office is at 106 East Broadway and his residence is at 301 South Central. He owns considerable property in Glendale and is always interested in any movement for the advance of the community. Mrs. Marlenee is head of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club and secretary of the Glendale Music club. She is one of the prominent musicians of the south in club circles.

Philanthropy Section Holding Meeting This Afternoon; Make Plans

The members of the philanthropy committee, of which Mrs. Anna T. Spaulding is chairman, will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, 246 North Orange street, to plan the work and discuss what shall be done for the inmates of the institutions which are looked after by the Tuesday Afternoon club, including the old people at the county farm, Children's hospital, Maternity Cottage, King's Daughters' Day Nursery and the Florence Crittenden Home.

EGGS-TRA! CHICKENS OF SOUTHLAND TO HOLD CONTEST!

Hens Will Gather at Pomona and See Which Can Lay Most; Let 'Em Cackle!

Everything is in readiness for the Southern California Farm Bureau egg laying contest which starts October 1 at Pomona. Many of the birds are on the grounds and are becoming accustomed to their new surroundings. Buildings and yards have all been completed and the birds will have all of the latest conveniences known on poultry ranches. They are being kept in sections holding 100 birds each. This is done to make conditions as nearly like those found on the commercial poultry ranches as possible.

At the last meeting of the contest committee the ration to be used at the contest was decided upon. The scratch feed to be used will consist of barley forty per cent, cracked corn twenty per cent, wheat twenty per cent, milo twenty per cent. The mash to be fed to birds at the contest will consist of bran thirty-five per cent, corn meal twenty per cent, red dog flour twenty per cent, linseed meal ten per cent, meat scraps seven and one-half per cent, fish scraps, seven and one-half per cent, charcoal, two and one-half per cent, and salt one-half per cent.

Plan Experimental Work

The committee also decided upon the plan for the experimental work to be conducted at the contest for the benefit of southern California poultrymen. There will be eight pens used for the experimental work. The experiments will be carried on to determine the value of buttermilk and buttermilk substitutes in place of meat scrap in the ration and also for tonic value of these buttermilk products. The birds in the check pen will be fed the same ration as those in the contest as mentioned above except there will be no fish scrap and the ration will consist of fifteen per cent of meat scrap instead of seven and one-half per cent of each. The experiments will be conducted to make comparisons between meat scrap vs. granulated milk albumen vs. dried skimmed milk vs. semi-solid buttermilk diluted as per manufacturers' directions vs. semi-solid buttermilk diluted to an equivalent of fresh buttermilk, vs. fresh buttermilk vs. semi-solid buttermilk diluted in accordance with manufacturers' directions for tonic value, to be fed in addition to the regular ration feed in the check pen, vs. lactein diluted as per manufacturers' directions for tonic value to be fed in addition to the regular ration as fed in the check pen.

Real Value Is Songht

These eight pens will make a comprehensive experiment on the value of these products and will also determine as to the best way for their use. Many poultrymen of southern California are using them and they should know just what value they may expect from them.

Pullets for this experimental work are being donated by poultrymen all over southern California, each poultryman to donate two White Leghorn pullets. Anyone desiring to help this work along by donating two pullets should leave them at the contest grounds, or see that they get to the contest grounds on South Garey avenue, Pomona, at an early date as the work starts October 1.

Poultrymen are gathering at the annual meeting of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau at Pomona on September 28 to inspect egg laying contest buildings and grounds.

New School In South Part of City Great Need, It Is Asserted

"The coming bond election to raise $260,000 for the city grammar schools is one chance for the voters of Glendale to maintain the educational standing of the fastest-growing city in the United States," declared Mrs. A. A. Barton, member of the city school board, this morning.

"The first question asked by nine out of ten prospective buyers coming to this community is 'What about your school system?'

"Personally, I consider the establishment of a new intermediate school in the south part of the city one of the big steps in the proposed program as it will afford relief for the crowded conditions of the seventh and eighth grades from all parts of the city and will give the Cerritos school the use of two additional rooms for the lower grades."

COMING HERE FROM EAST

Mr. and Mrs. M. Holmes and their daughter, Bertha, are now driving to Glendale from Lansing, Mich., according to report received by Edward Gabel, barber of South Glendale. Mrs. Holmes is a sister to Mrs. Gabel. Mr. Gabel has been in the nursery business. Upon arrival here he expects to settle and enter business in the vicinity.

You'll not only find the flavor of our ham mighty tantalizing, but you'll find the goodness of all the meats we sell up to the pure food mark. And you'll find our prices down to public favor and you'll find our courteous services at your disposal.

ABSORBING SOME SUNSHINE

A. J. Thielen and F. A. Yaeger, 1418 South San Fernando road, are spending the day in San Fernando. They took their lunch and went over there early this morning. No, they are not enjoying a picnic although the affair might be considered an "outing." They are basking in the nice warm sunshine upon the roof of E. G. Young's new residence—installing gutters and down spouts. They secured the contract for the sheet metal work.

BACK FROM NORTHERN TRIP

F. G. Beylik, proprietor of the chemical laboratory at South Glendale, returned last Saturday morning from a business trip to San Fernando, San Jose and Palo Alto. About a month ago he made a trip northward in an auto. This time he was alone.

VISITORS AT VALLEY FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sandlin and their two children, Junior and Ellen Jean, attended the San Fernando Valley fair. The children were much impressed with the stock show and its handsome entries. The family lives on San Fernando road in South Glendale.

W. H. FAIRALL IS VISITOR

W. H. Fairall, who is at present employed as field man for the Peppers Fruit company at San Joaquin valley, is spending a few days at his home at 550 East Palmer avenue, this city. He expects to return to the valley Wednesday.

S. BERMAN IN NEW SHOP

S. Berman, the tailor, is moving his place of business today from 122 North Brand boulevard to 410 South Brand. Mr. Berman has purchased property at 410 South Brand and is anticipating a generous patronage at the new place of business.

GUEST OF DR. CAMERER

Lieut. Ralph Roberts, who is officer on the U. S. flagship Arizona, which is now in San Pedro harbor, was the house guest over the week-end of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer of 311 West Garfield avenue.

A hearty and wholesome laugh is the happiest music.

Selling Directly to User Brings Results, States R. E. Pierce

"Our plan of selling direct to the user has worked out very well," stated R. E. Pierce of the Russel Furniture Manufacturing company, South Glendale, yesterday afternoon. "We have only been operating under this plan for the past three months and are more than pleased. Our overhead is so light that we are able to quote lower prices than most stores.

"As a matter of fact, we have been so busy that we have not had time to give serious attention to enlarging our factory. We are going to build an addition to our present factory as soon as we can find time to have the work done."

Southern Glendale's Improvement Club to Meet Wednesday Night

A special meeting of the Southern Glendale Improvement club will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in the branch library building on South Brand boulevard, to which the members of the board of city school trustees, Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools, and parents and property owners in the southern section of the city have been invited to discuss matters pertaining to the Cerritos avenue school.

OPEN BRANCH REAL ESTATE

The Babcock-Hamilton-Smith real estate firm, 204 East Broadway, today opened a branch office at 717 South Brand boulevard, to take care of the business in the south sections of the city. The office will be in charge of E. D. Johnston, who is thoroughly experienced in real estate work. A complete file of the listing will be found at the branch office, but attention will be given particularly to real estate in the south part of the city.

Messrs. Babcock and Hamilton are busy today moving their office from 208 East Broadway to 204 East Broadway, where the newly-consolidated firm of Babcock-Hamilton-Smith will hold forth.

OUTING AT HERMOSA BEACH

Edward Gabel, proprietor of the barber shop at 1412½ San Fernando road, South Glendale, drove his wife and two children, Edward and Russel, to Hermosa Beach Sunday where the youngsters had a fine time playing in the sand. Their dad was careful not to get sunburned again. He received one coat from Old Sol a few weeks ago and thought that was sufficient.

J. L. MILLER LIKES GOLFING

J. L. Miller of Miller's Grocery and Market, South Glendale, spent a portion of Sunday playing golf at Griffith's park with Ernest Levelle of 213 West Chestnut street. Mr. Miller says he can go around the eighteen-hole course in 92, but does not say what score his partner made. He considers the layout of the links quite easy.

G. M. STULL OPENS STORE

G. M. Stull, who opened a second hand furniture store at 1420 San Fernando road a short time ago, expects to have the interior of his establishment replastered and decorated in a few days. A new window pane probably will be installed. Mr. Stull declares that he expected to place some new furniture in stock, also.

RECALLS DAYS BACK HOME

W. S. Floyd, proprietor of the Indiana Shoe Shop, South Glendale, remarked yesterday that this "warmish" weather reminded him somewhat of the Hoosier state which he left almost eight years ago. He was glad to add, however, that here it is cool at night.

PREPARING FOR HOLIDAYS

The Brenkman Electric store at 1510 South San Fernando road already is preparing for Santa Claus' visits into Glendale homes. They have stocked up with a nice assortment of toys, many of which are electrically operated, which make the children's eyes open in wonder.

IS HERE FROM OKLAHOMA

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gillan of 203 West Maple avenue entertained Mr. McWhirt of Oklahoma on Sunday. Mr. McWhirt hopes to locate in Glendale soon.

VISITORS AT LONG BEACH

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer of 311 West Garfield avenue spent several days at Long Beach recently as the guests of friends in that city. Among the Glendale folk who attended the Kinmundy, Illinois, picnic which was held at Santa Monica Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. Camerer.

SPEAKER'S SLIP OF JUDGMENT COSTLY TO CLEVELAND

Ruth Gets Two Homers, Double and Registers Five Runs; Indians Are Scalped

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Even the great make mistakes. Sometimes the greatest make the greatest mistakes.

Two years ago about this time, Lee Fohl lost his job as manager of the Cleveland Indians because he allowed a hurler to pitch to Babe Ruth.

Yesterday Fohl, now boss of the St. Louis Browns, sat in the press box at the Indian-Yank game and saw Tris Speaker, his successor, make the same mistake three times.

Speaker's slip of judgment practically cost the Cleveland Indians the American league penant.

Coveleskie and Uhle pitched to Ruth and the bambino got two homers and a double, accounting for five runs.

Those five as it may turn out gave the pennant to the Yankees.

It Was Great Battle

Critics and fans agreed that yesterday's battle was one of the greatest games of ball ever played. The Indians fought like maniacs until Steve O'Neill fanned in the ninth inning with two on and two out.

Fight as they did, though, the Indians couldn't overcome the Ruth handicap.

The "last stand" of the Indians in this series proved them the same great ball club of 1920, without the pitching that made them the world's champions.

The Yanks in their victory stand as an example of what tremendous hitting can do, even with mediocre pitching.

The long hinted at dissension between Manager Huggins and his players came to light as a reality in the eighth inning of the final game.

Made Furious by Taunts

Waite Hoyt, hurt by a slashing liner off his bare hand and stung almost into a fury by the taunts of the Cleveland dugout, wobbled. Rober Peckinpaugh, captain of the club, and Babe Ruth ordered Hoyt to the bench and called in Mays. Hoyt threw his glove away and Mays was almost to the infield when Manager Huggins ordered Hoyt back.

The Yanks all grumbled out loud. A few minutes later Huggins called Hoyt in.

With a two-game lead the Yanks now have to wint three out of their five remaining games to cinch the pennant.

FANS, HERE ARE SOME FIGURES FROM SEVENTEEN WORLD SERIES

American League Has Won Eleven; Nationals Are Just Behind In Total Of Runs Scored

Seventeen world's series have been played since the first meeting between the American and National league clubs in 1903. It is interesting to note that to date that on the series played the American league has won eleven series and lost six, but in the matter of runs scored the National league is giving a stern chase, being only fourteen runs behind.

Here is a table showing the main factors of the various series played up to last year:

Year	Winner—	G.	R.	Loser—	G.	R.
1903	Boston Americans	5	39	Pittsburg Nationals	3	24
1905	New York Nationals	4	15	Philadelphia Americans	1	3
1906	Chicago Americans	4	22	Chicago Nationals	2	18
1907	Chicago Nationals	4	19	Detroit Americans	0	6
1908	Chicago Nationals	4	24	Detroit Americans	1	15
1909	Pittsburg Nationals	4	34	Detroit Americans	3	28
1910	Philadelphia Americans	3	35	Chicago Nationals	1	13
1911	Philadelphia Americans	4	27	New York Nationals	2	13
1912	Boston Americans	4	25	New York Nationals	3	31
1913	Philadelphia Americans	4	23	New York Nationals	1	15
1914	Boston Nationals	4	16	Philadelphia Americans	0	6
1915	Boston Americans	4	12	Philadelphia Nationals	1	10
1916	Boston Americans	4	21	Brooklyn Nationals	1	13
1917	Chicago Americans	4	21	New York Nationals	2	17
1918	Boston Americans	4	9	Chicago Nationals	2	10
1919	Cincinnati Nationals	5	35	Chicago Americans	3	20
1920	Cleveland Americans	5	21	Brooklyn Nationals	2	8

(One tie game in the series of 1907 and 1912.)

SUMMARY

	Series Won	Series Lost	Pct.	Games Won	Games Lost	Pct.	Runs
American League	11	6	.647	54	45	.545	333
National League	6	11	.353	45	54	.455	319

The Boston Americans hold pride of place in the matter of the largest number of victories. The team won the title first in 1903 and their other victories came in 1912, 1915, 1916 and 1918, making a total of five wins. Philadelphia Americans are next on the list with three wins, in 1910, 1911 and 1913, while Chicago Americans chalked up victories in 1906 and 1917.

In the National league Chicago is the only team to date that has more than one victory, the team winning in 1907 and 1908. The victories in the American league have been confined to four teams, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia and Cleveland and in this respect the National league holds the record of winning teams with five different teams, New York, Chicago, Pittsburg, Boston and Cincinnati.

The WORLD OVER

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Friends of William Johnston, the California tennis expert, were sorry to learn that he was ill in Chicago, but the news did not come as a surprise to many who were aware of the strenuous season that Johnston has put in on the courts. Johnston, physically, is a small man, tipping the scales in the neighborhood of 120 pounds. That he is a little "iron man" is best denoted by this fact. Nevertheless there are limits to all kinds of endurance, and the bald fact is that Johnston has played himself ragged. Whether Johnston ever again will try to regain the National tennis singles title is a matter for debate. There are not a few followers of tennis who think he never again will be seen in this premier event.

Suzanne Lenglen, the famous French tennis star, now is on the broad Atlantic bound for Paris and the thoughts of her long trip over here must be sad ones. Much has been written about her here since her collapse on the courts and much of it has been most unkind and ungenerous. Fortunately, the more sportsmanlike critics have not judged her play by what she exhibited, taking the stand that no one is capable of their best while under physical disablement. They are reserving decision until such time as she may be completely recovered and again can invade the American courts at her best.

That the ethics of some baseball managers is not of a particularly high standard was demonstrated by the fact that Cicotte, of the whitewashed Chicago Blacksox, was advertised to play with a Saginaw team. The prompt action of Judge Landis, baseball commissioner, stating that any player who performed in the company of Cicotte, either with or against, would be blacklisted, has definitely shown just how much good the verdict of that jury has done for the discredited players who were the associates and tools of a gambling ring. There are all kinds of traitors, but they all belong to the same breed and should be made to realize what the public thinks of them.

All over the country, the first of the season's football games now are being played and the usual upsets are being looked forward to, particularly by the adherents of the lesser teams. There is always joy in a small college when its eleven is able to spring a surprise on one of the big university machines.

THE HARVEST MOON

The harvest moon is the one on or nearest to the 21st of September, harvest time. When nearly full it rises for several consecutive nights at about the same hour. A poetical playwright points out that it is a kindly arrangement of the Creator for the benefit of lovers. There is at that time a small angle between the moon's orbit and the horizon which causes this complaisance on the part of the queen of the night.

Glendale and Burbank Teams Will Meet Today

The 1921 football team of the Glendale Union high school will make its initial public appearance this afternoon when a practice tilt with the Burbank squad will be staged on the local gridiron. Although the game will be of no importance in the Central league standing it will nevertheless be watched by a number of fans in order to get a line on the comparative strength of both the Glendale and the Burbank teams.

Coach Hayhurst will probably use a large number of second team players during the affernoon, in an effort to get a bearing on the ability of new material. The game will start at 4 o'clock.

Watching Scoreboard

New York looks today to be a certainty as the scene for the 1921 world's series.

The Giants have a four-run game lead over the Pirates, while the Yanks are two full games ahead of Cleveland.

The Giants need only two more games to cinch the pennant. They have one game with the Braves, one with the Robins and two with the Phils.

Pittsburgh has one left with the Phils and five with the Cards. If the Pirates lose two games out of six the Giants will win without taking another game.

The Yanks have the pennant if they win three out of five remaining games, one with the Browns, three with the Athletics and one with the Red Sox.

The Indians have four games with the White Sox. If Cleveland loses one the Yanks will need two more victories. If the White Sox hold the Indians even the Yanks will be in in one more victory.

Yesterday's hero—Babe Ruth hit his fifty-seventh and fifty-eighth homers and a double, scored three runs and drove in two, giving the Yanks an 8 to 7 victory over the Indians and the series, 3 to 1.

King, with a single and a double, scored both runs which gave the lowly Phils a 2 to 1 victory over the Pirates.

Art Nehf held the slugging Cards to five scattered hits and the Giants went nearer the pennant with a 4 to 1 victory.

Moore and Harris pitched shutout ball and the Athletics beat the White Sox, 3 to 0.

Warren Meeker Leads Tiger Freshmen Into Battle and They Win

A number of Glendale people were among the 500 spectators who "took in" the annual freshman-sophomore rope rush at Occidental college, Eagle Rock, yesterday afternoon. The fracas, which is the official annual Frosh-Soph "fight" at the Tiger institution, is always one of the most spirited and exciting events of the term, and this year was no exception.

The unusual heat of the day seemed to put added vigor and pep into the rah-rah boys, it apparently affecting them in the same way that a piece of raw beef affects a bull dog. From the opening blast of the starter's whistle until the end of the thirty minute period the field of battle, which was roped off on the football gridiron for the occasion, was a conglomeration of arms, legs, torn shirts and underwear, a few bleeding noses and various and sundry outcries of triumph, pain, encouragement and just "noise." The first year men, who outnumbered their more learned opponents by three warriors, were declared the winners after the dust had risen from "no man's land" and it was found that nine of the sophomores were tied "hand and foot" while the freshmen had succeeded in keeping all of their men free.

Glendale Man Captain

The winning aggregation was captained by Warren Meeker of this city, who was made the target of most of the sophomore's concentrated attacks. However, he was still able to walk at the end of the event. Other members of last year's graduating class of the Glendale high school who were on the beginners' team were Tom McNary, Stephen Fairchild and James Sherwood.

The rope rush is probably one of the oldest traditions of the Black and Orange school, and is conducted according to the following rules: All of the men of both of the under classes are lined up on opposite sides of a small plot, and each one is given a strong rope of sufficient length to tie two hands of as many feet of the opposition. Upon a starting signal they madly scramble toward each other, the object to have as many of the rivals bound up as possible in a given time. To be sure that the mixup has no tendencies of being a "pink tea" affair the rules stipulate that nothing is barred except slugging.

The reward for the class which emerges on top for two successive years is the privilege of placing their numerals in large white figures on the side of the hill behind the college. This is looked upon as the most important achievement of a class at Occidental.

Five Feature Acts on Vaudeville Bill at Glendale Tonight

With Del Fino's jazz band heading five feature acts of vaudeville, the Glendale Theatre tonight presents another one of its bargain attractions.

"The Dangerous Paradise," a Selznick picture, with Louise Huff will be presented as the feature film.

Lewis Allen Brown, scenarist of note, adapted "The Dangerous Paradise" from a short story by Edmund Goulding and something quite different in the line of light comedy is anticipated.

Louis Huff appears as Ivis Vanastor, a charming young miss of eighteen summers, who is rapidly becoming more and more annoyed by the chaperonage of her aunt with whom she lives.

Upon her eighteenth birthday the young lady comes into her inheritance which includes a handsome house at Newport.

In order that she may have a wonderful time flirting with all men in general and one, Norman Kent, in particular. Ivis pretends she is married to Horatorio Worthington, a fine old chap who lends himself to the spirit of the occasion. However, Norman discovers Ivis' little scheme and does a little conniving himself, the results of which are shown in a sequence of scenes that will keep the spectator in one continuous chuckle.

SOLDIER SERIOUSLY INJURED, HURLED FROM MACHINE

Thrown to Pavement, Strikes on Head, as Driver Tries to Avoid Hitting Dog

Boyner Bonickson, supply sergeant of Company C, National Guard, a resident of Burbank, is in the Glendale Research Hospital recuperating from concussion of the brain suffered ten days ago as the result of falling from a light car being driven by Curt Miller, city engineer of Burbank.

Bonickson was riding on the running board of the car as it was proceeding at a moderate speed down Magnolia avenue. Miller tried to avoid hitting a dog which chased the car and his passenger was thrown to the pavement.

When picked up blood was flowing from the ears and his condition was such that recovery was thought unlikely. However, his condition is reported greatly improved at the local hospital. Dr. A. E. W. Yale, a former army medical officer, is the attending surgeon.

Israel Takes a Tumble

Little Israel Forschleiser at Roscoe had been told he was to go to school this year, but when school day arrived and it was time to go, Israel was not to be found. After quite a long hunt the little fellow was located by mama, who gathered him up and carried him to the schoolhouse. However, instead of attending school, he took to playing on the slide in the schoolyard, took a tumble and a broken wrist was the result.

HOME SERVICES FOR MILDRED SVENSON AND O. M. DAIR

Couple Attended Local High School and Have Numerous Friends In Glendale

Miss Mildred Svenson, daughter of Mrs. Ella Svenson of 155 South Pacific avenue, and Owen M. Dair, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dair of 818 East Colorado street, were married at noon Monday, September 26, 1921, at the home of the bride, Rev. W. W. Cookman officiating.

The ceremony took place before the fireplace in the living room, which had been transformed into a bower of greenery, pink carnations and baby breath. The bride wore her goin-away suit of dark blue poiret twill and carried a bouquet of pink bride's roses. She was given in marriage by her mother, who wore a gown of black silk charmeuse. Miss Olive Svenson, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She wore a dress of blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink Cecil Brunner roses.

Attended High School

The bridegroom was attended by Fred Grey of this city. Guests at this very pretty affair were intimate friends and relatives of the young couple. Following the wedding ceremony Mrs. Svenson served delicious refreshments, including a huge wedding cake, atop of which was a small cupid driving a pair of love birds.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Dair attended Glendale Union High school. Mr. Dair is employed as credit manager with a large wholesale plumbing concern in Los Angeles. Mrs. Dair is very popular in the younger social circles of the city and has been the guest of honor at showers and other social affairs given for her. She received an array of beautiful and useful wedding gifts after the ceremony.

The young couple made their getaway amid a shower of rice. After a two weeks' honeymoon trip by automobile through the northern part of the state Mr. and Mrs. Dair will be at home to their friends at 208 Maryland Court until the completion of their new home on East Colorado street. The lot was a wedding gift from the father of Mr. Dair.

Aeroplanes were used this year in fighting a serious plague of grasshoppers in southern France. The aviators reported breeding grounds and scattered poisoned bran.

Notice of Street Work

Public notice is hereby given that the Council of the City of Glendale, on the 22nd day of September, 1921, did at its meeting on said day, adopt a Resolution of Intention, No. 1239, to order the following improvement to be made, to-wit:

First: That a Vitrified Pipe Sanitary Sewer be constructed in Maryland Avenue and Harvard Street from the intersection of the centerline of Harvard Street and Maryland Avenue to a point in said centerline of Maryland Avenue eight hundred fifty-eight and ninety-one hundredths (858.91) feet northerly from said centerline of Harvard Street and across all street and alley intersections along the line of said sewer, together with manholes, septic tanks, cesspools and appurtenances, all as shown upon the plan and profile of said sewer designated as plan No. 422.

Second: That a vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed in sewer right of way north of Broadway and in Maryland Avenue from a point in the center line of Maryland Avenue one hundred forty (140) feet north of the north line of Broadway westerly parallel to the north line of Broadway, to a point one hundred seventy-seven and forty hundredths (177.40) feet westerly therefrom, together with manholes and appurtenances all as shown on the plans and profiles of said sewer designated as Plan No. 422.

class. Many of these have been in high school and brought their gymnasium outfits along.

With the exception of the mechanical drawing set, which is purchased by day and night students in order that they may use it at home, all text books are furnished by the school board. A deposit is made for the return of the property and a reasonable deduction will be made for wear and tear upon it. In the shop work the only charge is for materials actually used.

"There seems to be an impression that there is a charge for night school attendance," corrected Principal Ferguson this morning. "I have heard this comment from several sources. This is untrue. There is no charge whatever."

Here's Tonight's Schedule

Tonight's schedule of classes follows:

Shorthand 7 to 8, and typewriting 8 to 9, rooms 125 and 126, Miss Harriet Switzer.

Bookkeeping 7 to 8, and penmanship 8 to 9, room 120, Preston A. Fullen.

Auto shop 7 to 9, Mechanical Arts building, Bert Rolfe.

Machine shop 7 to 9, Mechanical Arts building, Morgan N. Smith.

Millinery 7 to 9, room 143, Miss Wilhelmina Hobush.

Business men's gym class 7 to 9, Howard Butterfield.

Plenty of Talent In School Orchestra, Is Belief of Director

The high school orchestra this semester promises to be the finest that Glendale has ever produced, according to Mrs. Dora Gibson, its musical director, who conducted the second orchestra rehearsal of the term yesterday afternoon in the assembly hall.

"I think our orchestra works harder than any other organization in the school," stated Mrs. Gibson. "The members are taking hold splendidly and all are enthusiastic."

Thirty-seven pupils are registered for orchestra practice already and the enrollment of several more is anticipated. Quite a few of this number are new in orchestral work, but they seem to be getting along splendidly—as though they had played with the Los Angeles Symphony for years.

Two harps will be a feature of the high school orchestra this year. One of them will be plucked by Margerie S. Baily, while the other will be twanged by Lois Welch. The pianist is Leonora Rose. Hazel Linkogel will play one of the first violins and probably will take a solo part. Ruth Goldsboro plays the bass viol. There are ten first and eight second violins.

The orchestra is practicing upon Handel's Largo, nIntermezzo Russe, American Legion March and All American March. It expects to furnish a program at the coming teachers' institute October 13 at the high school.

The practice usually ends with a march," remarked Mrs. Gibson. "That makes everybody feel good at the end of the day."

Program of Hi-Y Is Completed; Activities Numerous and Varied

The complete program for the coming school year of the Glendale Hi-Y societies has been worked out by the local members while at the state Hi-Y training camp this summer and approved at a recent meeting of the representatives of the various groups. The policy and activities of the organization are to be governed by a cabinet, which is to be made up of two members from each group. The program:

Aim—To clean up the smut in the high school.

Goal—Every member a Christian.

September—A banquet for Hi-Y members and prospective members.

October—Entertain the high school cabinet. Special speaker.

November—Entertain the high school football team. Speaker, Mr. Martin of Pasadena.

December—Entertain the Hi-Y clubs of Alhambra. Baskets for needy families.

January—Entertainment of intermediate and grammar school Y groups. Mr. Poeton, speaker.

February—Father and Son banquet.

March—Entertainment of basketball, tennis and debating teams.

A check signed by J. Fenimore Cooper, drawn on the Otsego County Bank of Cooperstown, New York, has come into the possession of the State Historical society of South Dakota. It bears the date of March 1, 1846.

AUTO STRIKES FENCE IN RACE; 2 LOCAL MEN UNINJURED

Hard Luck Is Passenger With Winfield and Durand In Contest at Hanford

other cars since the third lap, when he electrified the grandstand by passing Duesenberg No. 5 directly in front of the reviewing stand. The little special built "Lizz," as Sam affectionately calls the machine, had just "straightened up" from the last turn on the track and was leading its nearest rival by more than a full lap when the accident happened.

Within less than a hundred yards from the finish and traveling at a speed of about seventy miles an hour, the right rear wheel suddenly caved in, abruptly throwing the front of the car at a right angle to the course, and tore through the heavy wood fence lining the track and into a plowed field.

By sheer luck Winfield was uninjured in the crash, in which a half dozen 6 by 6 wooden barriers and numerous smaller boards were shattered, his only response to the inquiry of the first spectator to reach the scene, asking if he was hurt, being:

"No, only my pocketbook."

Although the gasoline tank had been punctured, the body bent and the hood torn from the body Winfield and Durand managed to push the machine back on the track and over the finishing line in second place.

This could not be accepted by the race officials, however, due to the fact that, according to the rules and regulations of the American Automobile association, which body was in charge of the contest, an entry is disqualified from the race if any person other than the driver or mechanician touch the machine during the race. About thirty innocent spectators had willingly gathered around the unruly flivver and helped to return it to the track.

The cause of all of the misfortune, as was soliloquized by Winfield Monday, was an inferior wire wheel. Under no stress at the time of the accident the circular frame of spokes simply "gave in" around the axis, resulting in the near tragedy. The damaged wheel is now on exhibition at the Winfield and Durand establishment on East Broadway.

Saturday's races attracted the largest crowds in the history of the Hanford oval, and it was considered by the officials of the affair that they were among the most successful, financially and otherwise, that have ever been staged in central California. Among the many well-known Pacific coast professional drivers who participated in the various Hanford events Saturday were Omar Toft, Mike Moosie, former teammate of Earl Cooper, and Frank Elliott.

Finishes Heat First

Prior to the final race two preliminary heats for a distance of ten miles were run, with six entries in each event. Winfield easily finished ahead of the field in his heat, coasting over the line two laps in front of the next car. His fastest time for an entire lap was clocked at fifty-three seconds, or approximately sixty miles per hour.

Pitted against the local entry in the final race was another Ford, a Duesenberg, a Delage and two Chevrolets.

Showing that they were not disheartened by their streak of bad luck the Glendale racers have already begun overhauling their machine in preparation for the big Bakersfield races that are scheduled to take place at the oil city on November 9. Paul Derkum, former speed king who is sponsoring the coming event, stated Saturday night following in the Hanford races:

"Winfield and his little yellow Ford are the biggest drawing cards in the automobile racing game in the central part of the state and the fact that they will both be seen in the Bakersfield race assures that affair a success."

Over $450 Secured for Tuesday Club's Fund for Building

Although not all bills have as yet been turned in and paid, Mrs. A. T. Montgomery, curator of the Shakespeare section and chairman of the culinary exhibit from Glendale at the San Fernando Valley fair, states that the members of that section and the literary section, who had charge of the concession at the fair made well over $450, which will be added to the building fund of the Tuesday Afternoon club.

J. W. Stauffacher, City Treasurer, Has Outing

J. W. Stauffacher, city treasurer, is on the job again at the city hall after ten days camping and fishing along the Santa Ana and Bear Creek canyons. With his son, Edwin, who is a protection engineer for the Southern California Edison company, they motored fifty miles north of Redlands and packed into the secluded streams where fishing was "great."

Leaves Hospital Bed to Appear Here With Joe Martin, Monkey

Curley Stecker fooled 'em.

When he heard that the "personal" appearance of Joe Martin, Universal City's $50,000 monkey had been cancelled at the Glendale theatre because of injuries received by Stecker while wrestling with a lion at the San Fernando Valley fair, he rose right up from his hospital cot in wrath and said:

"I'm going to Glendale tonight if I lose a leg."

Nurses, doctors, film officials and Joe Martin couldn't stop Stecker from keeping the promise to Al Cawood, house manager of the local theatre, that he positively would be there with the humanese.

After Harry Schenck, production manager of Universal, introduced Dorothy Vernon and Hap Ward in a little sketch, Rex Rozelli, one of the most widely known character actors in the country, gave a lecture on trained animals.

Then came the surprise. Joe Martin walked onto the stage pulling his trainer in a wheel chair, followed by Baby June Stecker, niece of Curley. Sure, and there was pandemonium as this popular member of the local Elks lodge No. 1289 put the monkey through a series of tricks. The promise to the public was kept.

If you compliment some men they will never forget you—unless you overdo the thing by lending them money.
